"HIGHER CITIZENSHIP—HIGHER AGRICULTURE"

Notable Speakers Will Deliver Addresses on This Subject at Vermont State Fair.

The Vermont State Fair commission has arranged with men of note to visit the State fair at White River Junction on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 14, 15, 16 and 17 and deliver addresses on the two subjects, "Higher Citizenship" and "Higher Agriculture."

The addresses on "Higher Agriculture" will be delivered in the new public service building each morning of the fair at 10 o'clock. These addresses, which will be made by prominent men who have extensive knowledge on the subject of agriculture, will last an hour each.

The addresses on "Higher Citizenship" will be delivered in front of the grand stands, all seats on the stands to be free each day, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. The speakers for Tuesday and Wednesday are yet to be announced, but it may be stated that they will be men of note.

On Thursday, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the Columbia University, and an educator of international prominence will be the speaker. What he will have to say on "Higher Citizenship" is sure to have an interest for all his hearers.

On Friday Hon. John W. Weeks of Massachusetts, United States Senator and a possible candidate for the presidency will deliver the address. This will be a political address. The Senator will speak on the subject of "Higher Citizenship" and his prominence in the nation's affairs entitles him to a large audience.
